Embezzlement Conviction Is Upheld

By BILL SIMMONS
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court upheld today the embezzlement conviction of John H. Pointer Jr., former city collector of Pine Bluff.

The high court rejected five arguments advanced by attorneys for Pointer in the appeal
from the five-year prison sentence the defendant received when convicted July 9, 1963, before Judge Henry Smith in Circuit Court at Pine Bluff.

One contention for reversal of the verdict was that Smith erred when he refused to quash
the jury panel and order preparation of a new jury list.

The Supreme Court, in a unanimous opinion written by Associate Justice J. Fred
Jones, pointed out that it ruled earlier this year that an accused person "does not have the right to have a jury of his choice from the panel selected by the jury commissioners."

"We now hold that an accused (person) in Arkansas has never been entitled to have the jury commissioners select jurors in such manner as to assure the accused of a jury from his own ethnic group or from
his own ethnic group or from his own occupation," Jones wrote.

The jury panel for Pointer's trial was selected under the jury commission system that has since been replaced by the so-called jury wheel system, which is designed to create a more random selection.

Jones said the high court refused to hold that the jury selection statutes governing jury selection prior to the jury wheel system are unconstitutional.

The court did not find that the previous system prevented
a representative cross section of the community from being placed on the jury rolls.

Pointer was convicted of embezzling $32,473 in city funds after he was appointed to the office of collector on June 15, 1965.

Chief Justice Carleton Harris
did not participate in the decision.

The Supreme Court said that Pointer seemed to want the court to declare the jury selection statutes unconstitutional
on ground that they prevented the jury rolls from containing
a representative cross-section
of the community and, instead,
caused jurors to be placed on the rolls who reflected the personalities of the jury commissioners.

Jones said the Alabama jury selection statute is similar to the Arkansas statutes and that the Alabama Supreme Court had upheld the jury commission system "even though the jury rolls reflected the personalities of the jury commissioners."

The Supreme Court also upheld the conviction of Troy Duncan in Circuit Court at Fayetteville on a charge of possession and delivering of narcotics.
Duncan was fined $1,500 on each count and was sentenced to two years in prison with one year suspended.

On appeal, Duncan, who was convicted without any testimony offered in his defense by anyone, argued that he would be freed on entrapment.

Must Report Fgn. Accounts on Tax Forms

MIAMI (AP) — Americans will be required to report their foreign bank accounts on their tax returns for 1970, the director of the Internal Revenue Service announced today.

Randolph W. Thrower, the IRS
head, told the University of Miami Tax Conference: "Taxpayers will be required to disclose
the existence of foreign bank accounts on 1970 tax returns."

Thrower said the IRS now is considering the manner in which the bank accounts will be reported.

"The law does not provide our agents with all of the tools they need to cope with the illegal use of foreign banks," Thrower said. He said a Treasury Department task force is working on the problem and will develop recommendations.

Describing secret foreign bank accounts as a "matter of growing concern," the IRS chief said the anonymity they offer
has been used to conceal income from such things as narcotics smuggling, black market currency operations in Southeast Asia and illegal trading in gold.

"There are a significant number of foreign accounts opened primarily to facilitate tax evasion by people who otherwise appear respectable and law abiding," Thrower said.

Recall Ruling Doesn't Apply to Senators

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Atty.
Gen. Joe Purcell said Saturday that Jim Johnson's proposed constitutional amendment to recall Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., as worded, would not apply to senators.

Johnson had written Purcell
asking for approval of the popular name and ballot title of a petition to have the proposed amendment placed on the November general election ballot.

Purcell said that the proposed amendment would limit recall to state officers.

The attorney general said
several similar cases indicated that a member of Congress is not considered a state officeholder, but a federal officeholder.

Johnson said that he would revise the proposal by adding the words "United States Senator" and resubmit the petition to Purcell. Johnson said he thought that change would eliminate any question whether the amendment called for the recall of a senator.

Purcell said Saturday he also revised and lengthened the popular name and ballot title of the proposed amendment to make the name and title of the proposed amendment conform with the text.

State law requires the popular name and ballot title of petitions for constitutional amendments to make the intent clear to the voters.

Johnson says he represents a group of clients seeking an amendment that would enable them to recall Fulbright.

Purcell made no change in the content of the amendment petition.

my troops from Neak Luong
Sunday. They moved on about 2 1/2 miles and met the Cambodians at the village of Kompong Phnom. This indicated that the 37 miles between the ferry crossing and the Cambodian capital of Phnom Penh was clear of enemy troops.

Neak Luong lies on Highway
1, which connects Phnom Penh with Saigon.

Reports from Phnom Penh
and the South Vietnamese Marines seized both sides of the ferry landing. They arrived with an allied flotilla that moved across the border from South Vietnam Saturday.

Other reports from the Neak
Luong area said 20 to 30 South Vietnamese boats were maneuvering in the waterway between the two sides of the ferry landing.

The capture of Neak Luong removed the main obstacle on the road to the hard pressed provincial capital of Svay Rieng, 30 miles west of the Cambodian border.

NIXON CALLS (from page one)

they were considering the idea of a "campaign vacation" next fall so students could play an active role in the November elections.

Princeton University adopted
the proposal last week.

Chancellor Albert Bowker of New York City's Board of Higher Education, which runs the 165,000-student City University, said he would recommend a two-week period of free time for the students in the autumn.

Dr. Paul A. Bloland, president of the American College Personnel Association, appealed Sunday to the nation's governors, asking them to prohibit National Guard units from carrying live ammunition on campus.

Last week, four students died at Kent State University when National Guardsmen fired on campus demonstrators.

Bloland also urged college administrators to enforce regulations prohibiting students from keeping firearms or ammunition on campus.

In the Senate, Majority Lead-

Rotarian Jimmy Jones presented several members of the Friday Music Club at the Rotary Club luncheon last Friday in the Town and Country, and they sang a program of music from "Fiddler on the Roof." After the music club president, Mrs. Geist, had made a few remarks about the club and National Music Week, Mrs. Strong sketched the story of "Fiddler on the Roof."

Then, accompanied at the piano
by Mrs. Arthur Streech, Mrs.
Clarence Geist, Mrs. Sam
Strong, Mrs. Harry McLenore
and Mrs. Joe Eason sang "Matchmaker," "If I Were a Rich Man," "Sabbath Prayer," "Sunrise, Sunset," and "Fiddler on the Roof."

In the brief remaining time,
Superintendent of Schools Jones
told of the crucial situation facing the school system due to lack of funds. Voluntary reassessment of property would provide a needed financial aid and possibly prevent a shortening of the school term of 7 months next year. "The time is upon us to act, for next year's operational funds must be acquired a year in advance. That means now."

President Benny Coleman had charge of the meeting and welcomed four guests, The Rev.
Quentin Edwards, George Frazier, John Kaiser and S. Sgt.
Cecil Bittle, Jr.

er Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., predicted at least one amendment to prohibit expenditure of funds for U.S. ground operations in Cambodia would be approved by the Foreign Relations Committee.

Several student delegations also reported plans to come to Washington to query congressmen about their views on Southeast Asia.

Weather in State Varied Widely

Some areas of the state enjoyed sunny, pleasant weather
Sunday, but in other areas there was rain, thundershowers and the threat of tornadoes.

Severe thundershowers watches and a tornado watch were issued Sunday evening for portions of the state, but no severe weather was reported, the Weather Bureau said.

Skies in Central Arkansas cleared Sunday afternoon and the sun along with damp conditions created a humid day,
the bureau said.

A stationary front which hung in Oklahoma for several days and caused the unsettled weather in Arkansas has dissipated,
the bureau said, but a southerly flow of air will keep the possibility of afternoon showers and thundershowers in the forecast.

You ran the letters consecutively, pointing out that people should always level with each other. I'm a sucker for happy endings. Did you ever learn whether these two were actually engaged, or was it just one of those strange unexplained coincidences? - DYING TO KNOW
Dear D.T.K.: I've never heard and I often wonder, for I too am a sucker for happy endings. One of the big frustrations about columning is that so often people only write when they're troubled, and they seldom let me know how things turned out - until the next problem hits. Then they write, "Your advice last year really worked" (no hint as to WHAT advice!) "So now I'm trying you again. . . ." - H.

Rico Carty Hopes for All-Star Bid

NEW YORK (AP) — Rico Carty of the Atlanta Braves, who leads the National League in batting with a .421 average, was hoping today that a write-in campaign would put him in the starting line-up in the All-Star Game.

Carty was left off the ballot Sunday in nominations for the line-up to start the annual classic July 14 in Cincinnati.

The selections announced by Commissioner Bowie Kuhn had the Chicago Cubs filing seven starting positions. The Cubs are infielders Ernie Banks, Glenn Beckert, Don Kessinger and Ranto, outfielders Billy Williams and John Callison and catcher Randy Hundley.

The public also will participate in the voting. Names of 48 players will appear on 26 million ballots which will be available to the public during June.

The 48 nominations were made by a poll of major league managers and player representatives. Write-in spaces will be available for fans desiring to vote for players not originally nominated.

In addition to leading the league in batting, Carty also has gotten a hit in 28 straight games.

Detroit's Al Kaline was missing from nominations for the American League team made several days ago.

All-Star managers will select starting pitchers and reserves as in past years.

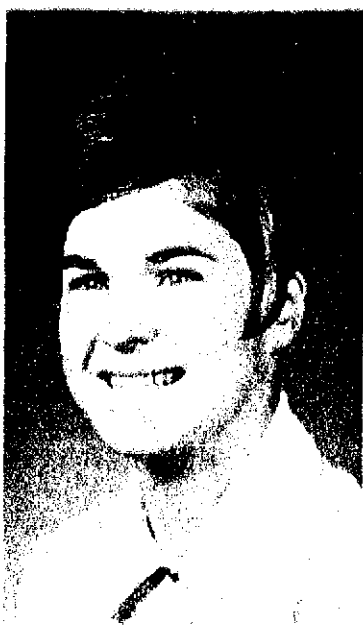

Public balloting will be conducted May 30 through June 28. The nominated players:

First basemen—Richie Allen, St. Louis; Ernie Banks, Chicago; Orlando Cepeda, San Francisco; Lee May, Cincinnati; Willie McCovey; San Francisco; Wes Parker, Los Angeles.

Second basemen—Blenn Beckert, Chicago; Tommy Helms, Cincinnati; Julian Javier, St. Louis; Felix Millan, Atlanta; Joe Morgan, Houston; Ted Sizemore, Los Angeles.

Shortstops—Bud Harrelson, New York; Don Kessinger, Chicago; Hal Lanier, San Francisco; Denis Menke, Houston; Fred Patek, Pittsburgh; Maury

GAIL CROSS

MAGNOLIA—Gail Cross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.L. Cross and junior elementary education major from Hope, was installed as president of Phi Sigma Chi at its annual banquet at the Town House Tuesday night.

Miss Cross, a graduate of Hope High School, is also a member of the Association of Women Students, the Psychology Club, and resident assistant in Harrod Hall, women's dormitory.

Approximately 40 members of Phi Sigma Chi, affiliate of the Association for Childhood Education at Southern State, heard Dr. Frank Irwin, chairman of the Division of Education at the College, speak on "Dream It—Do It!"

Officers were installed by Mrs. Herschell Thompson, special education teacher for the Magnolia Schools and herself a former officer of Phi Sigma Chi.

Buffalo Gets First Choice in Draft

By MIKE RECHT

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The Buffalo Braves begin what has become an almost annual leveling process when they make the first selection today in the National Basketball Association's expansion draft.

The Portland Trail Blazers will choose second and the Cleveland Cavaliers third, and on following rounds Buffalo and Cleveland will exchange their order of selection while Portland picks second throughout.

The draft begins at 9:30 a.m. EDT in the office of Commissioner Walter Kennedy here and will not end until 33 players are selected from the 14 established teams. Each will lose two, and five teams will lose three players.

This draft has become almost an annual affair as the league has expanded three other times in the past four years, missing only last year. Each time, it has served to help balance competition since teams with the greatest depth lose at least one of their top reserves, while many of the lower clubs have little to lose beyond their seventh man.

Each team is allowed to protect seven players and then can pull back an eighth for protection after it has lost one player. The NBA champion New York Knicks appear the most vulnerable to the draft, boasting a bench that was the best in the league. Beyond their starting five, they have five former No. 1 picks in the college draft, and at least two of them are likely to go.

Their problem is what seventh man to protect—forward Dave Stallworth or guard Mike Roror. Bill Hosket, Johnny Warren, Nate Bowman and Don May are certain to be put up for grabs. There is also a possibility the Knicks might risk starter Dick Barnett, who is 33.

Wills, Los Angeles.

Third basemen—Clete Boyer, Atlanta; Richie Hebner, Pittsburgh; Coco Laboy, Montreal; Tony Perez, Cincinnati; Ron Santo, Chicago; Mike Shannon, St. Louis.

Catchers—Johnny Bench, Cincinnati; Jerry Grote, New York; Tom Haller, Los Angeles; Randy Hundley, Chicago; Tim Lincecum, Philadelphia, Torre, St. Louis.

Outfielders—Frank Aaron, Atlanta; John Callison, Chicago; Pete Rose, Cincinnati; Tommie Agee, New York; Roberto Clemente, Pittsburgh; Willie Stargell, Pittsburgh; Marty Alou, Pittsburgh; Willie Davis, Los Angeles; Rusty Staub, Montreal; Bobby Bonds, San Francisco; Larry Hise, Philadelphia; Bob Tolan, Cincinnati; Li Brock, St. Louis; Cleon Jones, New York; Billy Williams, Chicago; Ollie Brown, San Diego; Willie Mays, San Francisco; Jim Wynn, Houston.

KAY COLEMAN

MAGNOLIA—Kay Coleman of Fulton was elected president of Harrod Hall at Southern State College in recent elections for officers of women's residence halls.

Miss Coleman, who will take office in September, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N.B. Coleman of Rt. 1 Fulton and a graduate of Hope High School. A sophomore medical technology major at Southern State, she is a member of the Associate of Women Students and the Women's Recreational Association.

Bruins Drink Stanley Cup Champagne

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Bruins drank champagne from the Stanley Cup as expected Sunday, but it took some late heroics by old pro John Bucyk and young superstar Bobby Orr to get the celebration going on schedule.

Trailing most of the way, the Bruins gained a tie on Bucyk's goal with less than seven minutes remaining in regulation time. Then just 40 seconds into the sudden death overtime period, Orr banged home the winning tally.

That did it. The Bruins had beaten the St. Louis Blues 4-3, sweeping their best-of-seven National Hockey League final playoff series and winning the coveted cup for the first time in 29 years.

Bedlam broke loose in Boston Garden as fans raced onto the ice. NHL President Clarence the winners, and Bucyk was given the honor of skating it around the rink to a deafening ovation.

The tumultuous celebration continued in the jam-packed dressing room, with players pouring champagne on everybody in sight for more than an hour.

"None of these guys have their names on that cup yet," coach Harry Sinden said when asked why this celebration was so wild. "They may get there again in the future, but the first time is always the best." A few seconds later the fully dressed Sinden was tossed in the shower along with general manager Phil Schmitt as the celebration continued.

Shoemaker Takes First Division

By ED SCHUYLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
This time of year belongs to the 3-year-olds, but the Shoe seems to fit into thoroughbred racing news no matter what time of year it is—or what year it is.

Bill Shoemaker, who has ridden into racing legend and is still going strong, won the first division of the Argonaut Stakes Saturday at Hollywood Park on Western Welcome and then came back to score in the second section on Colorado King Jr.

The Argonaut and the Withers at Aqueduct, won by Hagley, kept the 3-year-olds in the racing spotlight on the Saturday between the Kentucky Derby and Preakness.

The only definite news concerning the Preakness to come out of the weekend was the fact that Calumet Farm's Sunny Tim will not run in the second leg of the Triple Crown next Saturday. He came up lame after winning a Preakness prep at Pimlico last Friday.

A field of 12 is likely for the 1 3-16-mile, $150,000-added Preakness including Dust Commander, the Kentucky Derby winner.

The opening series against New York, four straight against Chicago and four more against St. Louis and also for Gerry Cheevers, who was in goal for all 10 games.

McClellan Mail Favors Nixon's Decision

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., said Saturday that the majority of his mail from Arkansas strongly favors President Nixon's decision to send troops to Cambodia.

McClellan said letters he received from Vietnam frequently criticize the war because American soldiers have not been permitted to win.

The senator would not predict whether Nixon would be able to keep his promise to withdraw troops from Cambodia by the end of June.

Wilhelm in 1000th Trip to Mound

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Milestones are no more exciting than birthdays to 46-year-old Hoyt Wilhelm, but the Atlanta knuckleballer's 1,000th mound stand was a festive occasion, ... for the struggling St. Louis Cardinals.

The Cardinals, beaten nine times in their previous 10 games, struck for four runs in the ninth inning Sunday to nip Atlanta 6-5, ending the Braves' winning streak at 11 and marking Wilhelm's landmark pitching appearance.

Joe Cardenal delivered the tying and winning runs with a bases-loaded single off Wilhelm, who had kept the Braves' skein alive Saturday night with a pressure-packed save in his 999th career effort.

In other National League action, San Francisco slugged the New York Mets 11-7; Los Angeles whipped Philadelphia 7-0; Cincinnati edged the Chicago Cubs 7-6; Houston buried Pittsburgh 9-2 and San Diego shaded Montreal 5-4.

In the American League, Baltimore swept a doubleheader from the Chicago White Sox 7-2 and 4-2; Cleveland upended Minnesota 5-4; the New York Yankees topped California 4-3; Kansas City tripped Detroit 9-7; Oakland beat Boston 7-4 and Milwaukee took a pair from Washington 6-5 and 7-6.

The Braves, gunning for a club-record 12th consecutive victory, took a 5-2 lead into the ninth behind left-hander George Stone. But Richie Allen started the St. Louis comeback with his ninth homer and when Joe Torre singled, Stone was replaced by Bob Priddy. Singles by Julian Javier and Vic Davalillo filled the bases, bringing Wilhelm out of the Atlanta bullpen.

The venerable relief specialist, who will be 47 in July, 43-ired Joe Hague on a grounder as Torre scored the Cards' fourth run. Pinch hitter Leron Lee then was given an intentional walk, refilling the bases, but Cardenal followed with a two-run single to left.

Wilhelm, who has won 138 games since breaking into the majors with the old New York Giants 18 years ago, became the first pitcher ever to work in 1,000 games in his 11th relief stint this season. He broke Cy Young's mark of 906 appearances two years ago and expects the next 1,000 "are going to be a lot easier."

Rico Carter extended his hitting streak to 28 games with a run-scoring single and Tony Gonzalez socked a three-run homer in the fourth inning, giving the Braves a 4-2 lead.

Torre, who had struck out five times in a row, hit a two-run homer for the Cards in the top of the fourth.

Willie McCovey drove in six runs with two homers, one of them a grand slam, helping Juan Marichal stagger to his first victory of the season as the Giants outslugged the Mets.

Marichal, who had been sidelined with an ear infection, was tagged for 10 hits, including homers by Art Shamsky, Wayne Garrett and Donn Clendenon.

Don Sutton's four-hit pitching and a five-run eighth inning burst helped the Dodgers rip the Phillies for their fourth straight victory. Wes Parker's two-run homer in the fifth broke up a scoreless duel between Sutton and Grant Jackson.

Pete Rose clubbed a two-run homer in the ninth, lifting Cincinnati past the Cubs. It was the Reds' fourth homer of the day and 50th in 31 games.

Johnny Bench, Lee May and rookie Bernie Carbo, with a tying solo shot in the eighth, were the other Red fence-busters. Roy Santo and Billy Wil-

Cash Was Hero for Little Time

By HEISCHEL NISSENSEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

For seven innings Sunday, Norm Cash was money in the bank for the Detroit Tigers and the toast of a Mother's Day crowd of 31,500. Then he pulled a rock that only a mother could love.

Cash's two homers and four runs batted in had the Tigers locked in a 7-7 tie with the Kansas City Royals.

But in the eighth inning, with runners on first and third and one out, first baseman Cash fielded Ed Kirkpatrick's grounder and stood paralyzed as Joe Keough raced home with the winning run.

He compounded the felony by falling to make a play at first, either, and two walks forced home another run.

Kirkpatrick stopped running to first for a moment and stood motionless in front of Cash.

"I wanted to distract him so the run could come across," said Kirkpatrick, who sparked the Royals with a homer and four RBI. "Then I looked at the umpire and when he made no out sign I ran to first."

Detroit's Dalton Jones and Kansas City's Amos Otis smacked solo homers.

Elsewhere in the American League, Baltimore swept the Chicago White Sox 7-2 and 4-2; Cleveland shaded Minnesota 5-4; Milwaukee took two from Washington 6-5 and 7-6, the New York Yankees nipped California 4-3 and Oakland downed Boston 7-4.

In the National League, it was Cincinnati 7, Chicago Cubs 6; St. Louis 6, Atlanta 5; San Francisco 11, New York 7; Los Angeles 7, Philadelphia 0; Houston 9, Pittsburgh 2, and San Diego 5, Montreal 4.

After Baltimore's Don Buford tied the nightcap 2-2 with a seventh-inning homer, Brooks Robinson and Chico Salmon stroked run-scoring singles in the eighth as the Orioles boosted their winning streak to seven games.

Dave McNally, 6-1, given home run support by Frank Robinson, Merv Rettenmund and Boog Powell, pitched a seven-hitter to win the opener.

Catcher Duke Sims, who lost his starting job this season hit his first two homers and drove in three runs as the Indians edged the Twins.

Pitcher Sid McDowell also homered for Cleveland but needed relief from Rich Hand after Minnesota scored twice in the ninth. Leo Cardenas homered for the Twins.

Milwaukee tied the club record of five straight victories set last year as the Seattle Pilots.

Sunday's sweep of the stumbling Senators featured ninth-inning uprisings in both contests. In the opener, Ted Kubiak tied the score with a leadoff shot in the ninth and Wayne Comer won it with a bases-loaded pinch single.

The Brewers blew a 6-0 lead in the nightcap as Washington scored five runs in the eighth, featuring homers by Mike Epstein and Rick Reichardt, and tied it in the ninth on Frank Howard's 11th. But a pinch single by Ted Savage, two walks and Gerris McNerney's two-out pinch single won it in the Brewers' half. Reichardt also homered in the opener.

Home runs by Mike Hegan, Tommy Harper and pitcher Skip Lockwood helped the Brewers to their big lead.

The Yankees belted Rudy May for three quick runs in the first inning on Roy White's RBI double and Danny Cater's two-run single, but needed Thurman Munson's bloop double in the sixth, which scored White from first, to beat the Angels.

Would Drop Some Events in Olympics

AMSTERDAM (AP) — The International Olympics Committee, which selects the sites Tuesday for the 1976 winter and summer games, has been accused by the president of International Sports Federation of "not providing the type of competent leadership and foresight that would be needed to keep the games balanced."

The blast from Thomas Kehler, ISF president, was aimed Sunday at Avery Brundage, the 83-year-old IOC president.

"Time and time again we have expressed our willingness to cooperate but have gotten very little response and understanding from the IOC," said Kehler.

A day earlier Brundage said Alpine skiing, ice hockey, soccer and basketball "should gracefully withdraw" from the games because of what he called the breaking of Olympic amateur rules.

"You are attacking different federations because of amateur scandals," Kehler told Brundage. "Yet this state of affairs has been known for a long time but it has been tolerated by the IOC. Why now suddenly such drastic action?"

Brundage's call for the elimination of Alpine skiing—he said, "This poisonous cancer must be eliminated without further delay"—could cause havoc with the winter games. Skiing is one of the prime attractions of the Winter Olympics.

Tampere, Finland; Garibaldi, British Columbia; Denver, Colo.; and Sion, Switzerland are bidding for the 1976 Winter Olympics. The 1972 Winter Olympics will be staged in Sapporo, Japan.

Keller attacked Brundage for claiming that many cities no longer are interested in staging the games. He said Brundage's claim was false. Brundage also had criticized the federations for the choice of Grenoble for the 1968 Winter Olympics on grounds the events were spread all over the Alps.

"It was the IOC that chose Grenoble, not the international federations," Keller replied.

The 71-member IOC will vote Tuesday night on the 1976 sites. Bidding for the Summer Olympics are Moscow, Los Angeles and Montreal. The 1972 Summer Olympics will be held in Munich, Germany.

State Gets Mileage From Star

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Arkansas State got plenty of mileage out of Thomas Hill in the Southland Conference track and field meet Saturday.

Hill tied SLC records in the 120 yard dash and placed in four other events to compile 23½ points and earn outstanding athlete honors for the meet.

Hill ran a 13.7 in the high hurdles and was clocked at 9.4 in the 100 yard dash. He placed second in the 220, third in the high jump, second in the long jump and ran a leg on State's third place sprint relay team.

Despite Hill's one-man show, Arkansas State finished third in the meet behind perennial champion Abilene Christian and runnerup Lamar Tech.

ACC—which has won every SLC meet since the league started—wrapped up its seventh straight crown with 102 points to Lamar Tech's 74½. Arkansas state had 52, UT-Arlington, 51½ and Trinity eight.

Mike Linden of Lamar Tech leaped 48 feet and one-half inch to establish a triple jump record. Wayne Walton of ACC threw the discus 177 feet 10 inches and Dee Wayne Gray of UT-Arlington jumped 24 feet one-fourth inch in other record performances.

Paul Gerken of Trinity upset two of his highly touted teammates to win the SLC tennis singles title. He defeated No. 1 seeded Bob McKinley Friday and downed second seeded Dick Stockton for the championship Saturday. McKinley and Stockton defeated Gerken and Pancho Walthall for the doubles crown.

Trinity finished with 44 points followed by Lamar Tech 24, ACC, 11, Arkansas State and UT-Arlington nine each.

Mike Jerome of Lamar Tech fired a final round 66 to tie the SLC record and win medalist honors as the Cardinals won their seventh straight golf title. Lamar Tech finished with 1,182 points followed by UT-Arlington 1,230, ACC, 1,237, Trinity, 1,241 and Arkansas State, 1,243.

Most of the drama concerned the stretch duel between Crampton and Greene. Lean Bert, a drawing Georgian, moved into the lead when he holed a 60-foot putt for an eagle

Girl Softball Team Loses to Gurdon

Star Sports Writer

Last Saturday morning at Prescott, the Hope Girls softball team was downed by Gurdon, 10-6, for the 1st loss against 1 victory.

Hope couldn't get started until the 5th inning and by the time Gurdon had built up a 7 run lead on 10 hits.

In the 5th, Debbie Owens singled, moved to second, and scored the first run on a single by Nan Arnold. Unable to start anything else in the 5th or 6th inning, Hope began the 7th, trailing, 10-1. But they weren't finished!

Three consecutive doubles by Karen Beggs, Debbie Owens, and Bonnie Willis and a triple by Nan Arnold scored 3 runs. Singles by Mary Young, Betty Rodden, and Debbie Moore, scored the last 2 runs, but it wasn't quiet enough, though a good effort.

Miss Rawls Gives Lesson at Dallas

By MICHAEL A. LUTZ

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Betsy Rawls enjoys reading a good green now and then and she really taught the Dallas Women's Civitan Open field a lesson Sunday.

Miss Rawls used a talented putter to carve a two under par 69 and gain a two-stroke victory in the $25,000 charity tournament over the windswept Glen Lakes Country Club course.

And while many of the other lady pros were marvelling at the difficulty of the greens, Miss Rawls said they were the least of her worries.

"I like greens that take some thinking to read," Miss Rawls said after finishing the 54-hole tournament with a one-over par 214. "I made some pressure puts on those last three holes, and it always makes you feel good when you make those shots under pressure."

Miss Rawls started the final round three over par and two shots behind the second day leader, Kathy Whitworth.

But Miss Whitworth faltered with a 74 and Miss Rawls finished ahead of a trio who tied for second at 216—Mickey Wright, Sandra Palmer and Marilyn Smith. Each earned

Miss Rawls, who won $3,750, started the final round with a hot hand. She made an eagle and two birdies and finished the front nine in three under par 32.

Miss Whitworth finished fifth at 217 and collected $1,370. Mary Mills and Judy Rankin tied for sixth at 219

Oswald: "Every bridge player likes to play no-trump contracts. When they carry this desire too far they have become victims of 'notrumpitis', a disease which may not kill bridge players but certainly interferes with their well being."

Jim: "The victim of no-trumpitis always has some excuse for his no-trump bid. Sometimes he says that he had to show his points. On other occasions he feared that some other bid might overencourage his partner. But back of it all is his belief that he has a God-given right to play no-trump contracts."

Oswald: "South lost no time rebidding one no-trump after North had responded one heart to the diamond opening. North could find no better bid than a raise to game and West had no trouble finding the jack of clubs lead."

Jim: "East's king picked dummy's queen and the club return knocked out dummy's ace. South tried the diamond finesse. It lost and South wound up down two. Of course, there was the usual complaint that finesses never worked for him."

Oswald: "They wouldn't have worked if North had been declarer but nothing could keep North from making game in either no-trump or hearts."

Jim: "If South had just raised his partner to two hearts, North would have gone on to game. If he bid the game in hearts he would make four or five odd depending on the exact defense. If he bid it in no-trump, a spade lead and club return would hold him to nine tricks. Any other defense would allow him to collect 11."

THE WELL CHILD®

New Treatment Concept Used on Child's Deafness

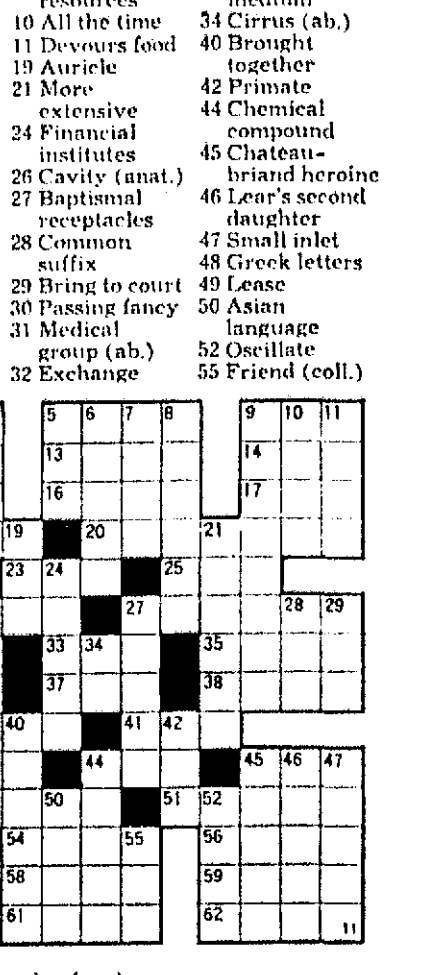

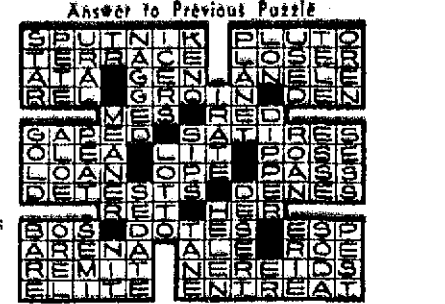

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Practically all children with a hearing disorder have some residual hearing. In order to develop this to the greatest extent, Dr. John H. Gaeth of Detroit uses a new concept of treatment. He found that audiovisual training of partially deaf children, far from helping them, interferes with their ability to hear because, following the line of least resistance, the child will concentrate on the visual at the expense of the auditory. Teaching lip reading or sign language has the same disadvantage. Even fitting these children with hearing aids early did not result in as much improvement as was expected.

What Dr. Gaeth set out to do was to get these children of kindergarten age to use the hearing they had to the fullest extent so that it would not suffer an atrophy of disuse. In his department at the Wayne State Rehabilitation Institute, the child is first taught visually without any use of spoken language, then he is taught auditorily. He compares this approach with that used by a mother with a normal child. The child playing with a cup forms a visual concept, then he hears his mother say, "Cup."

At the Institute they do not forcibly turn the child's head toward the teacher and mouth the word as is done in teaching lip reading nor do they finger-spell as is done in teaching sign language. The children who started out at the Institute and transferred to a regular school did not do well. But those who transferred to a school for the deaf and were fitted with hearing aids after their preliminary training spoke more clearly and were better able to communicate with others than those who had not had the special training.

Engineers Hear Plea to Tap Narrows

By LOUIS GRAVES
Editor, Nashville News

Lake Narrows' service to Southwest Arkansas will be broadened considerably, if the petition presented to Army Engineers last Thursday, May 7, becomes reality.

Engineer representatives in the courthouse at Murfreesboro heard two hours of testimony in support of the need for more water storage for cities and industries, more water services, and for improved roads and recreation areas at the 20-year old reservoir on the Little Missouri River.

The public hearing was called by Col. John Brennan, district engineer from the Vicksburg office, following a local request for an updating in the mission of the lake.

Chiefly, five cities were asking for more water to be made available in the storage levels at the lake. Those five included Murfreesboro, Nashville, Daisy, Kirby and Prescott.

Supporters for improving the role of the lake were optimistic at the conclusion of the meeting. This included Frank Bray of Murfreesboro and H.K. Thatcher, executive vice president of the Ouachita River Valley Association.

Mr. Bray, who is chairman of the Pike County Development Authority, president of the Murfreesboro Industrial Development Corporation, and president of the Narrows Lake Association, said Thatcher identified the meeting as one of the best he had attended, complete with facts and opinions.

"We probably will have another public hearing within three or four months when the engineers come up with some recommendations in line with our requests," Mr. Bray said.

NASHVILLE'S REQUEST

Nashville was represented by Mayor Bill Holliday and Jay Toland, of the Chamber of Commerce. Their written letters told of the city's eventual need for 1,500,000 gallons of water per day to supply a poultry processing plant. Nashville maintains a 12-inch line to the river and the system has a capacity of 2,000,000 GMD and an assured supply of river water is essential to the economy.

Spokesmen for Murfreesboro included Mr. Bray, Mayor Dub Deal, Banker R.M. Twyford, and Pike County Judge Alton Self.

Mayor J.S. Steuart of Daisy spoke of his community's water needs, and so did Supt. of Schools Eugene Parton of Kirby.

State Senator Olen Hendrix spoke of Prescott's use (currently 2,000 gallons per minute by an industry) and future use of river water by Prescott and Gurdon.

He did complain that when the river water reached that area, it was often stale and muddy.

He endorsed Murfreesboro's efforts to raise the power pool level to get more water for the promotion of tourism and industry.

While there were no opposing voices against the increased water storage, downstream farmers complained of a lag in shutting off hydroelectric waters when the river is in flood stage, possibly because of the flow from the Muddy Fork river. Farmers sometimes are cut off from field across river by the waters.

Among those asking for closer, quicker controls of the combined waters was Alvin Stokes, former Pike county judge, and other farmers.

The control point, now at Boutington downstream near Highway 67, might be moved to the vicinity of the State Highway 27 bridge, it was suggested.

EXPAND, IMPROVE

The Ouachita River Valley Association supported the local effort. Vice President Thatcher referred reporters to the association's 1969-70 policy platform for Narrows Dam and Reservoir.

That platform noted that in the 20 years intervening since the dam was activated in 1951, there had developed an increased

53 Persons Arrested at Cotton Plant

COTTON PLANT, Ark. (AP) — Police Chief W. B. Whitaker said that 53 persons, including the Rev. Cato Brooks, were arrested as they attempted to march through Cotton Plant Saturday morning.

Whitaker said the marchers were released about six hours later, when local residents secured their bonds.

The marchers were part of a demonstration planned by Community Organization Methods Build Absolute Teamwork (COMBAT).

COMBAT had requested a parade permit but Cotton Plant officials denied one.

Brooks said, "We will not let the power structure enslave us any longer and we will not be intimidated by the threat of bodily harm, nor from the point of economic pressures."

In another march, police said 18 persons were arrested Saturday as about 150 Negroes attempted to march into Strong. Police disbursed the crowd with tear gas.

Seven persons were arrested May 2 during a similar march in the city. Both marches were headed by COMBAT. Neither march had been granted a parade permit.

Brooks led last Saturday's march.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — William H. McGehee, 38, assistant news editor of the Memphis Commercial Appeal, was killed Saturday in a one-car accident about five miles east of Moxow, Tenn.

McGehee was formerly a reporter for the Pine Bluff Commercial.

Says Slayings Were Natural Result

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Former Gov. Orval E. Faubus said Sunday that the slaying of four Kent State University students by National Guardsmen was a "natural result."

Faubus said during a Challenge '70 program sponsored by the Little Rock Jaycees and KARK-TV that he would not hesitate sending troops to a state school if necessary.

Faubus said the Kent State incident was probably the result of letting people "who perhaps are not as mature as they should be" go unchecked.

He said he prevented bloodshed by sending in troops at Little Rock Central in 1957.

Sunday Faubus, who has said he might seek the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, said there would be no need for private schools if public schools were upgraded.

Authorities said the man, who was about 35 or 40-years-old, had been dead about 12 hours when he was found Sunday.

South Vietnamese Navy Students Want More Protests

By EDWIN G. WHITE

SAIGON (AP) — A South Vietnamese navy flotilla of about 30 boats with a half dozen U.S. advisers sailed into the Cambodian capital of Phnom Penh today after the first allied river assault across the border, South Vietnamese sources said.

The flotilla, which left South Vietnam on Saturday, completed a 60-mile drive that helped secure an important ferry crossing on Highway 1, in Cambodia.

South Vietnamese headquarters said more than 200 enemy troops were killed in the naval drive along the Mekong River.

The arrival of the flotilla at Phnom Penh was announced by the South Vietnamese, who made no mention of U.S. advisers on board the boats.

The presence of advisers was reported later by South Vietnamese informants who are in a position to know.

The navy movement was accompanied by gains of South Vietnamese fighting along the banks of the Mekong farther south.

South Vietnamese marines seized the key ferry crossing at Neak Luong on the Mekong and then drove on north and linked up today with U.S.-trained Cambodian strike forces.

A dispatch from Cambodia said four Marine battalions drove about a company of ene-

Nixon Calls Conference on Protests

By JAMES PHILLIPS

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon summoned the nation's governors to the White House today to discuss campus unrest and Southeast Asia in the wake of student strikes, antiwar protest and sporadic violence that climaxed in a massive weekend demonstration in the nation's capital.

Nixon called the meeting last week after campus violence erupted following his decision to send American troops into Cambodia and the deaths of four Kent State University students.

The state executives arrived as antiwar leaders called for the protest movement to continue its efforts against American involvement in Southeast Asia.

David Dellinger, a defendant in the recent Chicago seven conspiracy trial and longtime pacifist leader, said Sunday "people are going back to their own communities with the theme 'No business as usual.'"

He said the weekend demonstration marked the beginning of a grass-roots movement swelling across the country.

Antiwar spokesmen also said efforts would be stepped up to spread strikes to more campuses and industry in an attempt to cripple the "war economy."

The apparently volatile campus situation also prompted three major college officials to propose giving students time off next fall to participate in political campaigns.

President Kingman Brewster of Yale and Father Theodore M. Hesburgh of Notre Dame said

Leader Gone as UAW Seeks New Contract

By A.F. MAHAN

Associated Press Writer

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers, who go to the bargaining table in mid-July to hammer out new contracts with the automotive giants, have lost their leader of 24 years, Walter Reuther, killed with five others in a plane crash.

Under Reuther, a giant in the American labor movement, the UAW had grown to 1.6 million members, the nation's largest industrial union.

Reuther had been the UAW's president since 1946 and was a vice president of the AFL-CIO until he broke his union away two years ago in the climax to a feud with AFL-CIO President George Meany.

He then formed the rival Alliance for Labor Action in an amalgamation with the Teamsters and International Chemical Workers "to organize the unorganized and the poor and get the labor movement moving again."

Those who died Saturday with the red-haired, 62-year-old Reuther were his wife, May, 59; Oskar Stonorov, 65, a Philadelphia architect; William Wolfman, 29, Reuther's bodyguard and Mrs. Reuther's nephew; the pilot, George Evans, 48; and copilot, Joseph Karafa, 41, both of Columbus, Ohio.

The alternatives were to take a grade based on the work completed, take a "pass" or "with-drawal" from all classes, or take a grade of incomplete and finish the work next semester for a letter grade.

The University of Iowa announced it would remain open through the end of final examinations but offered three alternatives for students so they could leave school without penalty.

The University of Kansas students voted not to suspend school, leaving class attendance a personal option. Others will be allowed to attend topical discussions to finish the academic year.

Want More Protests

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Administrators and political leaders ordered the reopening today of many campuses that were closed last week, but some students called for continued protests. Other schools offered compromise plans to keep classes going.

Most of the nation's colleges were quiet Sunday as students from some of them returned from the weekend demonstration in Washington where about 60,000 persons gathered to protest operations by U.S. troops in Cambodia and the deaths of four Kent State University students.

At the University of Wisconsin, however, a crowd that grew to 4,000 marched on the administration building, breaking windows and demanding that the school reverse its rejection of a class moratorium request.

Thundershowers helped National Guardsmen quell the turmoil. In another development, officials of four major universities indicated they favored a proposal, adopted by Princeton last week, to give undergraduates time off this fall to work in political campaigns.

Among the campuses scheduled for reopening today were the California State university and college system. But student leaders at the Berkeley campus called for "curtailing normal activities for the remainder of the war" and opening the campus to mobilize resources and manpower for protests.

The University of Southern California announced that students won't be penalized if they skip classes the rest of the semester. President Norman Topping said the action was taken "to recognize the right of conscience" of every member of the student body and faculty.

The University of Miami, Fla., was ordered by a federal judge to reopen today. The order was sought by two law students.

In New York, a suit filed by the Young Americans for Freedom forced the reopening of Nassau Community College on Long Island. A threatened lawsuit brought a similar reopening at nearby Hofstra University in Hempstead.

The National Student Congress, expecting 2,000 delegates from 61 schools, convened Sunday night at San Jose (Calif.) State College under the slogan: "On strike but not shut down. Educational redirection."

ing demand for domestic, municipal and industrial water from the reservoir, and a need for expanding and improving the recreational and living facilities around the reservoir.

The ORVA supported these items for a new study of the project.

Increasing the holding capacity of the reservoir;

Increasing the minimum daily discharged from the reservoir;

Securing permission for near by communities to pump water

for their use directly from the reservoir;

Establishing home sites in certain areas along the shore line;

Securing additional access roads around and into the reservoir shore line;

Improving the river below the dam by the construction of a series of downstream weirs.

These were the same items asked for by Mr. Bray in behalf of the Pike County Development Authority. Mr. Bray noted that "under the present regulations, only a small portion of the potential economic benefits inherent in Lake Greeson can be realized."

In his report the engineers were asked to consider raising the top of the power pool four feet to 552 feet above sea level to provide the additional water.

William Allen, research management consultant who lives on Lake Hamilton where water pollution is critical, cautioned local persons to avoid such trouble and to consider the formation of a regional sanitary system.

At the conclusion, Col. Brennan reminded the same 150 persons in the courthouse that the engineers operated by existing authority and regulations. "We can't make everyone in the basin happy regardless of what is done, but we will give all of the recommendations a serious study. Water is a valuable resource, people are also."

After the public meeting the city of Murfreesboro was host at a luncheon at the Old Factory site on the banks of the Little Missouri River where Green Thumb workmen have created a first class picnic and recreational area.
